MARYLAND DOCTORS RALLY BEHIND ONE CANDIDATE
Dr. Ben Carson Spoke In Support Of Dr. Ron Elfenbein

ANNAPOLIS - Dr. Ben Carson travelled to Annapolis to provide his resounding support of one candidate, Dr. Ron Elfenbein. Dr. Carson stood beside many Maryland doctors who understand the importance of having a doctor in the state senate. They showed their support by raising almost $40,000 for Dr. Elfenbein's campaign. Dr. Carson commented that of all the rich and powerful patients he has treated at Johns Hopkins Hospital, "every single one of them would have given every penny and every title for a clean bill of health, and you begin to realize what is truly important." Dr. Elfenbein added, "If I don't win, we will not have a physician in the state senate. We need some representation."

Dr. Carson spoke about the roots of our great nation. He commented that, "Placing the power in the hands of the people works. Putting too much power in the hands of the government is when things become problematic." He supports Dr. Elfenbein's goals to bring back accountability and transparency in government and return the power to Maryland citizens.

Dr. Carson continued, "We need to emphasize and bring back the can do attitude, not the what can you do for me attitude. That is why this election is so important." Dr. Elfenbein stands on the principal of being responsible to the people - to the voters.
